

Children's Museum of Pittsburgh & Pittsburgh Botanical Garden Reciprocal Membership Program

The Pittsburgh Botanic Garden is excited to welcome Children's Museum members and provide this outdoor opportunity for our region's youth. Exposure to nature ignites a child's curiosity and creativity!

Children's Museum members receive free admission to the Pittsburgh Botanic Garden on Wednesdays, September 9 – December 31, 2020. Limit of 6 tickets per member family, per visit.

Family activities at the Garden

- Pollinator Trail is a series of interactive pieces co-produced by Children's Museum of Pittsburgh and Pittsburgh Botanic Garden. Each station features an activity to learn about different types of pollinators and how they live.
- Garden of the Five Senses offers ways to connect with plants through one's senses. From Digging In to Sniff and Savor, guests will be able to see, touch, taste, smell and hear.
- The Garden has 60 acres of space, perfect to explore the gardens and woodlands. Come explore the changing seasons in the meadow, discover the secrets along the woodland paths, and relax by the Lotus Pond.
