

Remake Your Story - Call for Artists

Project Description

Remake Your Story: Immersive Theater Camps: Campers work with artists, actors and designers to create and perform their own original show, while learning to form a community that works together from “Places!” to curtain call. Artists will guide campers ages 8-13 through the process of writing, producing and performing an original play. The camps will run Monday through Friday 9:00AM to 4:00PM for two sessions from June 20th through June 24th, and June 28th through July 1st, 2022. Guest artists will have flexible/limited schedules during this time, supplemented and assisted by CMP Teaching Artists.

Call Details

The Museum is seeking local actors, writers, and theater professionals to act as the Playwrights and Creative Directors for four separate summer camp sessions of 15 campers each.

The selected artists will be paid a stipend as follows:

- $1,000.00 weekly stipend for the Creative Directors, who will collaborate with Teaching Artists to guide campers throughout the process of writing, casting, designing, rehearsing, and performing their original show; if available, the selected artist can be a part of both sessions for a total stipend of $2,000.00
- $500.00 weekly stipend for the Playwrights, who will collaborate with the Creative Director and Teaching Artists to guide campers through the process of writing a 20 minute show during the first two days (Monday and Tuesday of each week) of the camps; if available, the selected artist can be a part of both sessions for a total stipend of $1,000.00

To Apply-

Artists may apply to one or both categories. All must submit a headshot, availability from June 12th to July 1st, 2022, and one or more of the following via email to auditions@pittsburghkids.org, depending on the area(s) of interest (please list in subject line):
