

Contact:

Max Pipman

Sr. Director of Communications

mpipman@pittsburghkids.org

(412) 586-6042

MEDIA ADVISORY

WHAT:

Celebrate Black History Month at Children's Museum of Pittsburgh's Black History Month Art Crawl, honoring Pittsburgh's Black heroes, past and present.

WHEN:

Saturday, February 7, 2026

11:00 am – 3:00 pm

(included with admission)

Contemporary artists stationed throughout the Museum's first floor will create live portraits and artworks honoring:

- Wylie Avenue
- Margaret Milliones, Pittsburgh educator and civic leader
- Sharon G. Flake, children's book and young adult author
- Patricia Prattis Jennings, classical musician
- Vanessa German, artist, poet and performer
- Jasiri X, hip-hop artist, activist and cultural educator
- Thaddeus Mosley, sculptor
- Janis Burley Wilson, arts leader
- Charlene Foggie-Barnett, community historian and archivist
- Kilolo Luckett, artist, curator and cultural leader

This year's featured artists include:

- Ifeoma
- Social Living
- Korey Edmondson
- Don Prophete
- Tyler Belizaire
- Ashante Josey
- Khalil Malik

- Juliandra Jones
- Jewel Strothers
- Rell Rushin

Additional activities include:

- Black History Month story times at 1:00pm and 2:00pm with special guest Principal Qualisha Zyhier, MA, from Northgate School District

WHERE:

Children's Museum of Pittsburgh
10 Children's Way
Pittsburgh, PA 15212
pittsburghkids.org

The 2026 Black History Art Crawl is generously sponsored by Highmark Whole Care.

Get a Free Admission!

Everyone who donates an activity item to the Children's Museum's year of kindness February collection for area seniors will receive one free, same-day adult admission ticket. Limit one per family; cannot be combined with other discounts. In collaboration with the Allegheny County Agency on Aging. Learn more at <https://pittsburghkids.org/collection>.